Gospel Reading

John 17:1-13

Troparion (Resurrection)

The Angelic Powers were at Thy tomb; the guards became as dead men. Mary stood by Thy grave, seeking Thy most pure body. Thou didst capture hell not being tempted by it. Thou didst come to the Virgin, granting life. O Lord, Who didst rise from the dead, glory to Thee.

Troparion (Ascension)

Thou didst ascend in glory, O Christ our God, granting joy to Thy Disciples by the promise of the Holy Spirit. Through the blessing, they were assured that Thou art the Son of God, the Redeemer of the world!

Troparion (Fathers)

Thou art most glorious, O Christ our God, Who hast established the Holy Fathers as lights on the earth. Through them Thou hast guided us to the True Faith. O greatly compassionate One, glory to Thee!

Kontakion (Ascension)

When Thou hadst fulfilled the dispensation for our sake, and united earth to heaven, Thou didst ascend in glory, O Christ our God, not being parted from those who love Thee, but remaining with them and crying: "I am with you, and there is no one against you!"

Kontakion (Fathers)

The Apostles' preaching and the Fathers' doctrines have established one Faith for the Church. Adorned with the robe of truth, woven from heavenly theology, It defines and glorifies the great mystery of piety.

In the year 325, 318 bishops from various lands gathered at Nicea to debate the heresy of the priest Arius. He denied the divine nature of Jesus Christ and His equality with God the Father, falsely teaching that the Savior is only a created being. St. Athanasius the Great conclusively refuted the blasphemy of Arius who was then excommunicated from the Church. The Holy Fathers confirmed the Apostolic teaching of Christ's divine nature in the Symbol of Faith which became known as the Nicene Creed.

Welcome to all guests with us today in person and by livestream as we celebrate the Divine Liturgy. You are invited to join us for Coffee Hour. If you are interested in learning more about the Orthodox Faith and St. Luke parish life, please talk with Fr. John.
